

~~Underwood~~
Underwood

Underwood

Box 11
John Underwood = E/ya 1739. 5-400
Eck. B/ ~~over~~ 1/2, Sameer Underwood

4.7th 1651 - The woodhouse
Pad
Dooa on E. side Gray ch
4.22 - 1652 - assigned it
to John Zaenes and his land descended to The Zaenes of Soly who by his ally on
5.5 - 1663 assigned it
The Underwood.
Serry Bk 1 - 211

~~BOOTH.~~

Virginia Magazine vol. 3 p. 66.

Margaret Underwood named in Capt. John Upton's will as "daughter" married Humphrey Booth. There is a marriage contract between Humphrey Booth of the county of Lancaster, merchant, of the one part and James Williamson and William Underwood of Lancaster, Gentleman, of the second part, the said Booth intending to marry Margaret Underwood, sister of the said Capt. William Underwood, conveying 700 acres on the Rappahannock river in Lancaster, which land was lately conveyed to him (Booth) by Mrs. Margaret Upton, widow, and mother of the said Margaret Underwood. There is recorded in Lancaster a power of attorney dated Dec 5, 1653, to Humphrey Booth of London, merchant, who was about to go to Virginia. Humphrey Booth was appointed one of the Justices of Rappahannock County at its organization Dec 11, 1656.

There is on record a power of attorney from William Walthall of Henrico, merchant, to Humphrey Booth of Rappahannock, merchant, dated July 26, 1656, also a power of attorney, 1659, from Mary, wife of William Underwood. There is a deed of August 10, 1653 from Humphrey Booth and Margaret his wife. There are on record deeds of gift from Mrs. Margaret Lucas (Upton-Underwood) to her granddaughters Grace and Catherine Booth. One of these daughters married Robert Brooke.

vol. 3 p. 61 There is a deed in Rappahannock Co. October 1, 1656 by which 700 acres of land is sold by Mrs. Margaret Upton, widow, to Humphrey Booth of Lancaster, merchant; these being the same lands in Lancaster County which on July 4, 1653 had been granted to her.

Capt. John Upton was one of the leading men of Isle of Wight; Member of House of Burgesses March 1629-30; commissioner (justice) Nov 1627, again from Feb 1631-2; Burgess Feb 1632-3; January 1639 (Robinson's Notes) April 1642 and Nov 1645; March 1645-6; Nov 1647 (Hening I) At session of 1645 the Assembly provided for a mint and enacted that "Capt. John Upton is hereby confirmed Mint Master Generall" (Hening I, 309) He was also commissioner of the Isle of Wight, and upon a voyage to England which he proposed to take in 1640, the Governor appointed his successor. His will without date was proved Dec 16, 1652, in Isle of Wight. Legatees wife, Margaret, sons, John and William, and daughters, Elizabeth Upton, Sarah Upton and Margaret Underwood. He was issued Land Patent #194 dated July 7, 1635 for 1650 acres in Isle of Wight about 3 miles up Pagan Point Creek, due for importation of thirty-three persons.

The widow Upton married as her third husband Thomas Lucas, Sr., gentleman of Lancaster Co. He had in June, 1652 received a grant of 600 acres in Lancaster among the head rights being Thomas Lucas, Sr., his wife, Thomas Lucas, Jr., Katherine, etc. Thomas Lucas, Sr., was a justice of Rappahannock, 1657 and Burgess Mar 1657-8. The will of Thomas Lucas, the elder, of Sittingbourne Parish, Rappahannock, was dated Oct 14, 1669 and proved March 14, 1673.

William Underwood, the brother of Margaret, was a justice of Lancaster 1652 and Burgess Nov 1652; justice of Rappahannock Dec 11, 1656, ~~and justice~~

East side 1300 ft
West 1300 ft

Sturges
Margaret Anderson

1600 ft
Margaret Anderson